

ENEWS 14 11

So Lady Gaga is spilling the beans about her birth, and the latest Billy Tea Ad is asking do you want a cup of real tea – “just like it was in your dad’s dad’s day - when men were men and women were something like men are now,” while some recipients of the Queen’s Birthday awards were very pro gay about it, and many Psychologists wish it were so, as they have been counselling for a long time that we are ‘Born that way’. Is it a fact? This week’s Evidence News 14/11 with EDitorial COMment is not long but it sure says a lot from John Mackay and the Creation Research Team worldwide.

1. “WE WERE JUST BORN THIS WAY” Lady Gaga tells gay gathering, reports the Courier Mail Australia 13th June 2011 and much media worldwide. Lady Gaga hailed the gays as the "revolutionaries of love" and called for "full equality now" for same-sex couples around the world in a speech in front of hundreds of thousands in Rome. The US pop diva told the EuroPride rally: "We're all from the same DNA. We were just born this way," she said yesterday from a stage in the Circus Maximus - an ancient arena in the heart of Rome. "Let us be revolutionaries of love and use our very strong human powers to save lives and encourage unity around the world." Link: Courier Mail

ED. COM. A little research shows Gaga borrowed her theme song title "I Was Born This Way" from a 1975 disco song by Valentino written by Chris Spierer and Bunny Jones about a man who proclaims he's a homosexual and that he was "born this way". It was one of the first disco songs written specifically for the Gay community, and in the 36 years since it was written, has become something of a gay (Good As You) anthem. This editor, who graduated in Geology, also undertook three years of genetics at University of Queensland and found no evidence during that time or since that Lady Gaga and co are right. It is why you don't hear gay supporters give you precise genetic research to back up their 'we are born that way' statements. (Ref. homosexuality, culture, inheritance)

2. GAY RIGHTS ACTIVIST HONOURED, as reported in SBS World News 13 June 2011. The Australian Government led by atheist Julia Gillard has awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia in the Queen's Birthday Honours to gay rights activist Brian Greig. SBS stated "He has been recognised for his service to the community as a social justice advocate for the gay and lesbian community. Mr Greig says he is able to look back over the last two decades at the developments that have come about because of his work."

For our non-Australian readers, the Queen's Birthday Honours are awards described by the Australian Government as "providing national and formal recognition for many Australians across the nation who have made a significant difference to their communities."

ED.COM. What a change! What a devolutionary change in Australian public values! Prior to World War 2, in order to settle in this country, my father left the UK speaking the Kings English. Now we Aussies are speaking the English of queens. (Ref. homosexuality, politics, philosophy)

3. NEW QUESTIONS

Are all the earthquakes, floods, tsunamis and tornadoes we have had in 2011 God's Judgement on planet Earth? Answer here

You seem to take a very strong position against homosexuality being something we are born with. Do you have any evidence that this is not so? Answer here

4. ON HOMOSEXUALITY, USA reader Dan Wright states; "What the HS camp is trying to do here in the US is to use our politicians and courts to outlaw any criticism of HS behavior all in their continual effort to brainwash the populace.

But!... there is one piece of good news recently that really gave me a glimmer of hope and it happened in Maryland. When it looked like all was lost and that HS marriage would become the law of the land in Maryland, a miracle happened. Ex-gays stood up to be counted which was very powerful and very important. Their testimony at the House public hearing and other work helped debunk the phony "born gay" myth used by the homosexual lobby, and helped make pro-gay Delegates re-think their position. Dan recommends this would be an excellent "model" to use in other places around the world. He went on to say: "I believe it can make a difference because it already has in Maryland! Hope you'll share it with all of your readers as I know a lot of us are looking for some hope and this might just be the impetus God is providing to help us turn the tide. 5. YOUTUBE FIRST as a 12 yr old South Australian Home Schooler interviewed International Director of Creation Research, John Mackay while John was in Adelaide in May 2011. The video of this interview is now on YouTube. Young Caleb Stephen asked John about his experience in geology, why he is a young earth creationist, and much more. Caleb's interview will help teach your children how to think and how to analyse the evidence for creation and the flood and defend their Christian faith in an ever increasingly hostile and irrational world.
